1 DAY SEMINAR

INSTRUCTED BY: LT. RICK BACHMANN

$125 per student

The most crucial information that all law enforcement officers need to be familiar with is case law. This course is the next chapter of NJ Case Law that Street Cop Training offers. We brought you the first version of this course, which helped thousands of NJ Police Officers, and we are now offering this second course that encompasses the most important knowledge you will need to be able to perform your job confidently and legally. How could you know how to perform if you don't know what NJ Court's ruled to be accepted practice? Today's police officer is expected to make decisions and know why he or she was able to take the action that they did. Some may think the job is becoming increasingly more difficult, but our training will reverse that stigma with the knowledge that we will provide. This job becomes inherently easier to perform when you have the "know how" to make great decisions in the performance of your duties.

This course will not only address case law that you must know, but will encompass NJ Attorney General guidelines. It is astonishing how many police officers have never read or are unfamiliar with the guidelines that the AG's office has enacted for us to follow. We are addressing that issue in this course. We are continuing to have major impact by giving NJ's police officers the tools they need to do this job well and protect the citizens of our state and the integrity of their agencies.

Topics to be covered: AG Guidelines – CUMMA (Medical Marijuana), Strip Search, Overdose Prevention Act and case law that's relevant these policies. Case law to topics to be covered: reliable sources of information, authorized "Terry Frisks", flight and eluding, warranted home entry, search incident to arrest, etc. We are 100% confident that the attendee will leave with a great sense of relief and know how. This course will clear up confusion with facts and comprehensive explanations that anyone can understand. The student is provided all sources of literature and legal references from where our programs are derived. The law is written, we are just teaching you what it says and means.
