Outline of 2025 Street Cop Conference Training Seminars

Case Law Tactics: Strategic Solutions for Law Enforcement: This one-hour class equips law enforcement professionals with practical knowledge of key case law principles and their application in real-world scenarios. Participants will explore strategic solutions to navigate complex legal challenges, enhance decision-making, and ensure compliance with constitutional standards. Topics include Fourth Amendment searches, detentions, and the use of force, with a focus on actionable tactics to strengthen investigations and avoid legal pitfalls. Designed for both seasoned officers and rookies, this class bridges legal theory and operational strategy to promote effective, lawful policing.

The Real Story of the Breonna Taylor Shooting: Join Sgt. John Mattingly for a candid and detailed account of the events surrounding the Breonna Taylor shooting. This one-hour presentation provides an insider perspective on the incident, including the planning, execution, and aftermath of the operation. Sgt. Mattingly offers firsthand insights into the challenges law enforcement faced, the decision-making processes involved, and the legal and public scrutiny that followed. Designed to foster understanding and dialogue, this session is an opportunity to examine a high-profile case through the lens of someone who lived it, offering valuable lessons for law enforcement professionals navigating complex, high-stakes situations.

Leading from the Middle - Unlocking Leadership Potential with Sgt. Matthew Fagiana: Leadership isn't about rank—it's about influence. In this engaging one-hour session, Sgt. Matthew Fagiana explores the art of leading from the middle and how officers at any level can inspire change, build trust, and foster team success. Drawing on real-world experiences, Sgt. Fagiana shares practical strategies for cultivating leadership skills, improving communication, and driving a culture of accountability and excellence within your agency. Whether you're a seasoned officer or just starting your career, this class will empower you to lead effectively, regardless of your position in the chain of command.

Mastering Behavioral Deception: Discover the art and science of detecting deception in this dynamic one-hour class led by behavioral expert Nick Jackson. Learn how to interpret verbal and non-verbal cues, identify patterns of deceptive behavior, and refine your interview and interrogation techniques. This course offers actionable strategies and practical tools for law enforcement professionals to build rapport, uncover the truth, and gain the upper hand in investigations. Perfect for officers at all levels, this session provides critical skills to enhance your ability to read people and master the complexities of human behavior.

Catching Hell: Infiltrating the Hells Angels: Join retired ATF Agent Jay Dobyns, bestselling author of No Angel and Catching Hell, as he shares the gripping story of his infiltration into the infamous Hells Angels Motorcycle Club. In this one-hour session, Agent Dobyns reveals the strategies, psychological resilience, and risk management techniques that made his deep-cover operation a success. With unparalleled insights into building credibility in high-risk environments, gathering actionable intelligence, and navigating the challenges of undercover work, this course is an invaluable resource for law enforcement professionals seeking to enhance their investigative skills and operational integrity.

Cybercrime Essentials: Investigations Every Officer Can Do: Join Investigator Nate Nobel for this essential one-hour class designed to empower officers with the foundational skills needed to tackle cyber-related investigations. Learn practical strategies for handling digital evidence, tracing online activities, and leveraging accessible tools to combat cybercrime in your jurisdiction. This session focuses on actionable steps every officer can take, regardless of technical expertise, to effectively address cyber offenses and integrate digital investigations into traditional policing methods. Whether you're on patrol or a detective, this course will equip you to navigate the evolving landscape of cybercrime.

Spotting the Signs - Pre-Assault Indicators: Learn to recognize the subtle cues that precede violent encounters in this vital one-hour class with Lt. Ely Alfonso. Drawing from extensive experience, Lt. Alfonso breaks down the behavioral and physical signs that signal potential assaults, empowering officers to stay one step ahead in high-stress situations. This course focuses on practical observation techniques, situational awareness, and decision-making strategies to enhance officer safety and de-escalate threats before they escalate. Ideal for patrol officers and investigators alike, this training provides critical skills to identify danger and act proactively to mitigate risks in the field.

Empowered by the Constitution - Understanding Your Authority: Join Sgt. Daniel Foster for an inspiring and informative one-hour session designed to deepen your understanding of the Constitution and its role in modern law enforcement. This course emphasizes how constitutional principles empower officers to uphold the law with integrity, protect citizens' rights, and navigate complex legal challenges. Through real-world examples and actionable insights, Sgt. Foster will equip you with the knowledge and confidence to apply constitutional law effectively in your daily duties, fostering trust and accountability in the communities you serve. This session is essential for officers at all levels seeking to enhance their constitutional literacy and professional effectiveness.

Weapons Concealed - Identifying Criminal Gun-Carrying Behavior: In this one-hour course, Investigator Ryan Johnston provides officers with the critical skills to identify individuals who may be illegally carrying firearms. Learn to recognize subtle behavioral indicators, body language, and environmental cues that reveal concealed weapons. This class focuses on practical techniques for assessing suspect behavior, improving situational awareness, and ensuring officer safety during encounters. Whether you're on patrol or conducting investigations, this session equips you with actionable strategies to detect and address the dangers of illegally carried firearms in your community.
